MISSIONARY IN CHAPEL

Last Friday we were blessed with the ministry of Pastor Ed Skowron in both a special middle school and elementary chapels. Pastor Ed, a former New Tribes missionary to native tribes in Panama, shared many stories about making Christ real for people in other countries and for people who live right next door. He had students dressing in authentic Panamanian clothing, shared about wild animals and customs, and even brought along some puppets who shared about telling others about Jesus. The chapels were very practical and encouraged the students to look at the world with a larger perspective, i.e., God's perspective.
